For You

Fall of Envy

Open up donâ€™t waste your days
Find another way to live
And face all your reasons here
And blame all your restless fears

Chorus:
If I could run a million miles from here
Iâ€™d pick you up and we could disappear
Into a world where only eyes collide
On my knees for you, yes I would die

Wait a minute what did you just say
The lights are shining in your face
Youâ€™ll find that you can call me home
Turn around I wonâ€™t be gone
