The Wretchedness Inside

Trivium

Submerged in dirt but it was never enough
To quell the fire in the back of my lungs
My bones are aching and my head is a mess
They said to run but I'm obsessed with the madnessThis blood I bleed, I bleed for you
I paint the walls with my misery
This blood I bleed, I bleed for me
I can not live if I can't breatheThe part I can't control, I can't destroy
The wretchedness insideThe wretchedness inside of you
(Inside)
The wretchedness inside of meConsigned to hurt but it was never enough
To bury feelings that will surely return
My heart is aching, and my god I'm a mess
I'll never run cause I'm obsessed with the madness
This blood I bleed, I bleed for you
I paint the walls with my misery
This blood I bleed, I bleed for me
I can not live if I can't breatheThe part I can't control, I can't destroy
The wretchedness insideThe wretchedness inside of you
(Inside)
The wretchedness inside of meI cannot control I cannot destroy
In hell, can I confideThe wretchedness inside of you
(In hell, can I confide)
The wretchedness inside of meHow did it come to this
How the fuck did it come to this
Our love and hate collide in all this dissonance
How did it come to this
How the fuck did it come to this
Our love and hate collide in all this dissonanceFuck youHow did it come to this
How the fuck did it come to this
Our love and hate collide in all this dissonanceHow did it come to this
