Better

Jessica Reedy

I used to be so broken,lost,empty.
A heart with no beat.
A singer with no song to sing .
So I know the feeling
The silence is deafening
But in your pain lies a blessing
A sweeter song of victory
So keep walking ,walking,walking
Though it seems so far.
No matter who you are
See, there is one thing that I know
Life it can leave ,You so bitter bitter,bitter, bitter
But you must believe
That it gets better,better,better, betterIs alright, dry your eyes,send a prayer
To the skies . I know its hard to fight
But you must believe
That it gets better.Listen to me , I know you`re scared
Your heart`s bleeding.
But what are you gonna do now?
I think is time you break free!And keep walking ,walking,walking
Though it seems so far.
No it doesn't really matter who you are
See, there is one thing that I know ohhhhh!
Life it can leave ,You so bitter bitter,bitter, bitter
But you must believe
That it gets better,better,better, better
Is alright, dry your eyes,send a prayer
To the skies . I know its hard to fight
But you must believe
That it gets better , betterAlmost out of here
See ,I was almost took,
I wanted to die
From how i was done wrong
I cried out every night
Looking for a helping hand
That`s when it happened
Jesus took me inHe held me close
Gave me love
Refilled my heart

Helped me grow better
Better
because his love made me whole
He`s available anytime .
Try Him out
He will change your life
Be Cause I know YeahLife it can leave ,You so bitter bitter,bitter, bitter
But you must believe
That it gets better,better,better, better
Life it can leave ,You so bitter bitter,bitter, bitter
But you must believe
That it gets better,better,better, better
