

Walpurgis Eve

Cradle of Filth

Procession, banquet, black mass, orgy
If our world were to cease right now
In the midst of this
Wide naked bliss, there stated sacred vows
I would break the universe in two
Just to ride with you
To face the jealous heavens down
Excite the terse miscarriage
Of first light that thirst to slay
This night versed with the marriage
Of you and I
And all who dare to stray
