

Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow

Black Label Society

Something's always going on
Whatever's right is always wrong
But I don't mind
I don't mindThe clouds are here, sun has come
So confused, so numb
But I don't mind
I don't mindBurnt and faded out
Faded out, faded out
Burnt and faded out
Faded out, faded outTake all I can in stride
No you ain't the only one in this life
Now I don't mind
I don't mindOnce you find yourself over here
Next you find yourself over there
But I don't mind
I don't mindBurnt and faded out
Faded out, faded out
Burnt and faded out
Faded out, faded outAin't no, ain't no yesterdays
Forget tomorrow, forget it all
We've got today
Oh there ain't no yesterdays
Forget tomorrow, forget it all
We've got today
