

Crash

Good Charlotte

It feels so strange
To be back at your place
You look away
A smile creeps across your face Remember the sounds, the laughs
The screams, the crashing plates
How we'd lay awake all night
And listen to the rain What if I just crash here tonight?
I can tell you're lonely
You've seen this look a thousand times
Don't you know what it means? I just came by to get my things
But now we're both here wondering
What if I just crash here tonight?
Would you let me?
Would you let me?
Would you let me? I knock on the door
And feel the nervousness inside
You open it up and say hello
And it subsides So I can admit I've said
Some things that just aren't true
And we both agree we've done
Some things we shouldn't do What if I just crash here tonight?
I can tell you're lonely
You've seen this look a thousand times
Don't you know what it means? I just came by to get my things
But now we're both here wondering
What if I just crash here tonight?
Would you let me?
Would you let me?
Would you let me? I know you've been trying so hard to forget me
Ignoring all my calls and I know you've been lonely
And all your girlfriends, they won't even look at me I heard about the guy that you started to date
I heard about the drama
Yeah, I heard that you laid him
I did the math and we both know what that means What if I just crash here tonight?
I can tell you're lonely
You've seen this look a thousand times
Don't you know what it means? I just came by to get my things
But now we're both here wondering
What if I just crash here tonight?
