The Fox & the Rabbit

Xiu Xiu

I like people who are wrong could you then feel like I do Collossus bestrides the haves and have nots go softly this is being sung for youwake up wake up the wish you made is plucked go out get up
you've done enough enough
wake up wake up
to take the time to cuss
you've seen enough enoughdo you think that you deserve it?I am waiting here for you looking out across the brooke my hands resting on my chest but still I stare into the nightwake up wake up
you've seen enough enoughwhen the fox hears the rabbit cry he comes running but not to help
