A Perfect Dream

Sarah Fimm

Halfway gone
Can't find the path
You've fallen off
There's this place in me for you
Elements of me
I see in twos
Me looking back at you
And there's this place in me
To light this perfect dream.
I hear the reverie
Please don't apologize
You'll be immortalized
In the weight of this melody
In the daze of my perfect dream
My Perfect Dream.
