Dreams
Rainy days
First confession
Fairy talesRace
And betrayal
Controversies
Left to failStars are eternally drawing the lines of the future
Humans are desperately running and fighting for life
Planets revolving and tracing a path of perfection
Humans are desperately running and fighting for lifeMoon
In the Sky
Tender whisper
Loving eyesWar
Fallen lives
Politicians
Fake and lieStars are eternally drawing the lines of the future
Humans are desperately running and fighting for life
Planets revolving and tracing a path of perfection
Humans are desperately running and fighting for lifeCan I ask why?
Who will say why?
Do you know why?
Let me say whyListen
