The Most Beautiful Nightmare (Part Two)

I Am Ghost

Yesterday ignites a star that is burned and dead, ?We are looking for this heartbeat laying cold upon my chest, ?As I hold you for the very last time, ?We'll burn together,
Just say enough to show me
Yeah, yeah, yeah
That was the first time, and the last time?
Heads rollin',
Heads rollin',
It never felt so good!?(2x)
?The Killer prays, lights a match with his own eyes, ?Still he's looking for that heartbeat, as the coffin burns out bright, ?As I hold you as they bury us in gold for the last time, ?Would say enough to show me your eyes (your eyes)?That was the last thing we were told
?Heads rollin',
Heads rollin',
It never felt so good!?(2x)?
In these arms would you care enough to dance? ?As I'm searching for that heartbeat, and I know it would not last, ?Would you care enough to say, would I know that I am ok with you, ?Whoa, for the last time...
Don't make a sound.?
That was the first time, and the last, ?Broken pictures of a face I cannot ignore your eyes,
Your eyes, so bright
Your eyesYesterday ignites a star that is burned and dead, ?We are looking for that heartbeat laying cold upon my chest, ?As I hold you for the very last time, ?We'll burn together,
Just show me with your eyes.
