Hometown Life

Sully Erna

I know you've waited for me here so long to see me since i've been gone and so as these years roll on i always come back to where i belong my hometown lifeAnd have you noticed every way ive changed cause to me i've simply stayed the same but every time i walk away you leave a little peice of you inside of me and made me who i am todaymy hometown life its spirits inside
my hometown tonight
is filled with the light unfaded
that i created
my hometown tonight ooohI walk around these streets and stare at the things that remind me of me i take it all inside and breathe in the air thats so unclean
yet keeps me alive
my hometown tonight ooohmy hometown life ooh ooh my hometown life
its spirits inside
my hometown tonight ooohmy hometown life (repeat)
