Asoulum

Lunatic Soul

I can't move
Belts are too tight
Four bare white walls
Garish Light
Awake!Welcme my travel berth
It's about time
To cleanse all these hurts
And returnI won't go
Cause I'm in the soul asylum
I can't go
Cause I'm in the soul asylum
I can't move on
Cause I'm stuck in the soul asylumPlease don't erase my name againSomething appears next to me
I follow it
I am led to the edge of brightI watch as this place starts to change
It takes on all kinds of different shapes
Twisted screaming faces lash out from the walls
Fear permeates through my soul
I hear the moaning
Voices from my past
I'm sinking in the sea of returning cries
For goodI won't go
Cause I'm in the soul asylum
I can't go
Cause I'm in the soul asylum
I can't move on
Cause I'm stuck in the soul asylumPlease don't erase my name again
Not again
