Maniacal

Front Line Assembly

We're gonna drop this song, 'cause you don't belong
You don't fit the mold so you've been told
You need to play our game and just act the same
'Cause we won't tolerate any other traitBang, I am maniacal, bang, so defiable
Obliverate, dominate, self destruct and activate
Bang, I am political, bang, so unequivable
The name of the game is to win all the wayPinned down to your chemical cross
Of hopeless faith, what a day, what a loss
No one left to tell this tale
Of all of us, life for saleThe clouds start to rise, there is no surprise
We all start to burn, when will we learn?
Who we are to be, watch the enemy
In you sights, you see when will we beBang, I am maniacal, bang, so defiable
Obliverate, dominate, self destruct and activate
Bang, I am political, bang, so unequivable
The name of the game is to win all the wayPinned down to your chemical cross
Of hopeless faith, what a day, what a loss
No one left to tell this tale
Of all of us life for saleBang, I am maniacal, bang, so defiable
Obliverate, dominate, self destruct and activate
Bang, I am political, bang, so unequivable
The name of the game is to win all the wayPinned down to your chemical cross
Of hopeless faith, what a day, what a loss
No one left to tell this tale
Of all of us life for salePinned down to your chemical cross
Of hopeless faith, what a day, what a loss
No one left to tell this tale
Of all of us life for sale, life for sale
