Chimaira

Late night comes are you home? No you're not
You're out with urge to satisfy yourself it's your vicious plot
Looking back, I realize that it's my fault
I'm not around so your love comes to a haltYou have no remorse in you
It's the only thing you know
You destroy me every time
You little cuntI never wanted this, gave myself
Gave myself to you to get paid back with lies
I never wanted this, gave myself
Gave myself to you to get paid back with liesEvery time I trust you, I lose in the end
Every time I trust you, I lose in the end
Every time I trust you, I lose in the end
I feel disgust, I feel disgust in myselfEvery time I trust you, I lose in the end
Every time I trust you, I lose in the end
Every time I trust you, I lose in the end
I feel disgust, I feel disgust in myselfI love how you can call me and pretend you're innocent
While I'm out here trying to better myself
You're a pig when it comes to my emotions
You drown me in your wake because you have no devotionYou have no remorse in you
It's the only thing you know
You destroy me every time
You little cuntI never wanted this, gave myself
Gave myself to you to get paid back with lies
I never wanted this, gave myself
Gave myself to you to get paid back with liesEvery time I trust you, I lose in the end
Every time I trust you, I lose in the end
Every time I trust you, I lose in the end
Every time I trust you, I lose in the endI never wanted this, gave myself
Gave myself to you to get paid back with lies
I never wanted this, gave myself
Gave myself to you to get paid back with lies
