

All for Love

Chris de Burgh

There is nothing wrong,
For you to feel this way,
You're trying to be strong,
It's harder everyday;
You have to run a home,
A job and family,
But sometimes it's too much,
And no one else can see;
'Cos men can be so blind,
Unfocussed, out of range,
When Superwoman cries,
Then something has to change;
Tell him that you've really had enough,
Show him that he's really out of touch,
Tell him when it's getting all too much,
And you just want him to hold you,
Tell him he should take a look at you,
And open up his eyes to all you do,
Show him that you need him by your side,
And that you do this all for love;He'll say in his defence,
His days are busy too,
And life can be intense,
But that is no excuse,
Yes I can be so blind,
Unfocussed, out of range,
When my Superwoman cries,
Then something has to change;
So tell me when you've really had enough,
Show me that I'm really out of touch,
Tell me when it's getting all too much,
And you just want me to hold you;
Tell me I should take a look at you,
And open up my eyes to all you do,
Show me that you need me by your side,
And that you do this all for love;Show me that you need me by your side,
And that you do this all for love,
All for love,
All for love!

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>