

Flash Delirium

MGMT

Mild apprehension
Blank dreams of the coming fun
Distort the odds of a turnaround
Gut screams out next to none So turn it on, tune it in
And stay inert You say, "I've got the backbone"
The back way to escape the gun
Climbing a tree with a missing limb
And not saving anyone And now it hurts to stay at home
And see flash The mirror ball's throwing mold
You can't get a grip if there's nothing to hold
See the flash catch a white lily laugh and wilt
But if you must smash a glass first fill it to the hilt Plants, as far as I know are still
Still bending toward the light
And if we dance until the heart explodes
It'll make this place ignite And even if this hall collapses
I can stand by my pillar of hope
It's just a case of flash delirium Here's a growing culture deep inside a corpse
Ages stuck together taking it to the source
Timeless desperation, pictures on a screen scream
"Hey people, what does it mean?" Comfort keeps us nice
So quick to donate everything
Die wolken drifting
Blinding, smiling circling And time's tingling spines
Attaching hands to floor
The rosy-tinted flash The hot dog's getting cold
And you'll never be as good as the Rolling Stones
Watch the birds in the airport gathering dirt
Crowd the clean magazine, chick lifting up her skirt Lines when I close my eyes and just Aim blindly at the sun and hear love
When the ghosts start singing
Terrorizing everyone Geometric troops aligning
Carried up to the burial mounds with gold
It's a heavy time but your
You rhythm makes it light and explode Like a violent star keeps threatening the night
Even if this hall collapses
I can stand by my pillar of hope and trust
That our heads won't bust 1655 red battleships
40 earth like planets
3 holes 2 tits, 1 fork in it's side

Zero tears in their eyes Sue the spiders
Sink the Welsh
Stab your Facebook
Sell sell sell
Undercooked, overdone Mass adulation not so funny
Poisoned honey
Pseudo science, silly money
You're my honey
