Orange Glow

Amel Larrieux

I want to rise above
My fears before they burn my solar plexus
Don't want to fight
The new
Just meditate on the state
Of what I'm changing into Chorus
Touch the light
orange glow to wash your soul
illuminate you
out of sight
burn your house of pain and watch the flames ignite your breakthrough
I want to take That ride
To the planet where the brave me resides

And I will face
The fire
Cus aint no breakthrough gonna come without no sacrifice
Chorus
I'm like
Vibrating as the liquid enters my fingertips
Pulses in my veins
>From my toes to my lips
Fuels my brain
Frees my pain
Breaks my mental chains
Awakened I am
As I blink my third eye
One life
Have I
So its time to live
Chorus
