Say, yes they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Don't they know that you're full of pain already?

Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Decadence isn't easy, is it?Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Don't they know that you're full of pain already?

Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Decadence isn't easyThen you slowly recall all your mind

Why your soul's gone cold and all hope has run dry, dead inside

Never enough to forget that you're one of the lonely

Slowly recall all your mindSay, yes they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Don't they know that you're full of pain already?

Yes, they know that you hurt yourself another time

Decadence isn't easy?Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Don't they know that you're full of pain already?

Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Decadence isn't easyThen you slowly recall all your mind

Why your soul's gone cold, and all hope has run dry, dead inside

Never enough to forget that you're one of the lonely

Slowly recall all your mindIf I scare you now, don't run from me

I've been hiding my pain, you see

Tell if I scare you now, don't run from me

I've been hiding my pain, you seeSlowly recall all your mind

Why your soul's gone cold, and all hope has run dry, dead inside

Never enough to forget that you're one of the lonely

Slowly recall all your mind, you'll slowly recall all your mindSay, yes they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Don't they know that you're full of pain already?

Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time

Decadence isn't easy, is it?
