

Thine Is This a Beginning

Debabrata Biswas

Thine is this a beginning
Mine also the ending.
You & I, thus mingling
Like a stream ever flowing.

Your taper is that burning,
You have your dear with you
For me there is night
For me stars are twinkling.

For you there is the land
I have water below.
For you there is waiting
I row all alone.

In your hands preservation
In my hands is dissolution.
You have fears in your heart
I have to loose nothing
