English Girls Approximately

Ryan Adams

English girls are pretty then they play guitar
Crazy like a day just a-breakin', I ain't sure what for?
Ain't got a mother or father or a place to fall
She got a brother in the blues
But he doesn't know the blues at allSaid you didn't love me, it was right on time
I was just about to tell you but okay, alright
Said you didn't love me, didn't want a thing
English girls can be so meanShe's got eyes, pretty as a pair of jewels
Falling down a canyon like a couple drunken criminals
She had a messy bedroom on the edge of town
But I ain't ever been good enough to ever keep aroundSaid you didn't love me, it was right on time
I was just about to tell you but okay, alright
Said you didn't love me, didn't mean a thing
English girls can be so meanBut, ohh, look at you now
Ohh, look at you now
Mmm, best I've ever seen
Just a tall drink of water
Just a-pourin' on down the sinkTall drink of water, she's a Norfolk waterfall
Little day breaker, she's a shootin' like a cannonball
Crazy like a rocket when you're comin' through my radio
Kept me in your bed till the wintertime turned to fallFall time comin' and I guess my little bird can sing
Come on Elizabeth, come on Bethany
Come on further, I'm tired and I want to sleep
My little dove flew and I guess she was done with meSaid you didn't love me, it was right on time
I was just about to tell you but okay, alright
Said you didn't love me, didn't want a thing
English girls can be so meanBut ohh, look at you now
Ohh, look at you now
Mmm, best I've ever seen
Just a tall drink of water
Just a-pourin' on down the sinkKiss me on the lips when my heart just laughed it off
Words may move, but they never movin' fast enough
Celebrate the differences, I celebrate the songs you sing
Just three words, my love you meant everythingYou meant everything
You meant everything
You meant everything
