Contagious Smile

Kolohe Kai

You can't tell and nobody knows that when I see you girl my heart goes, oh oh oh oh
'Cause it's about to hit the punch line
Oh oh oh oh oh
When I see you smile, my heart it goes, oh oh oh oh oh

It's not fair, it's not right,
To not see your pretty face in sight
It's not right, its not fair
To not see it anywhere

Just a glimpse of you does
Gives me such a heart felt buzz
'Cause your beauty is pure and sometimes it's hard to endure
My heart's afflicted
'Cause I'm so addicted to your smile, your smile Just one look was all it took
To keep me smiling for awhile, ahh

[Chorus]
'Cause your smile is contagious
It fills my hearts pages with love, yes it does
And your beauty is endless
It leaves defenseless to you and that contagious smile of yours, oh oh oh oh oh

Please don't hide what's inside
Let the whole see
That smile so pure
It's a possibili, it's a possibility
Baby dear, it's so clear
What you've done to me
Your the sweetest girl
Now that's a garantee
It's such a pleasure to see a measure of it, it's true, it's true Positive is just your style
Your cheering up people within a mile of you

[Chorus]

You can't tell and nobody knows
that when I see you girl my heart goes, oh oh oh oh
'Cause it's about to hit the punch line
Oh oh oh oh oh
When I see you smile, my heart it goes, oh oh oh oh oh

You can't tell and nobody knows
that when I see you girl my heart goes, oh oh oh oh
'Cause it's about to hit the punch line
