A Woman's Touch

Jacob Bryant

Your're holding me, desperately, like there ain't no way you'll let go of me, baby please, don't stop, let's get lost, tangle in the sheets, aw o-o-o, soft as a song, T'and then turned on

I'm taking this, I'm loving it, somewhere between your magic hands and your lips, candle light is burning bright, I can't resist, the feeling of your finger tips, all over my skin

You kiss me I'm gonna melt just from the heat of us, But now I know how it feels to live and breathe, the fire and the lovin rush
of a woman's touch

Baby seriously, you're killin me, every inch of your body is rockin me, can't you see, the sweet desire, like a fire, and how to stand, it's worth the pain, to feel that flame, you burned in me, you burned into me

You kiss me I'm gonna melt
just from the heat of us,
But now I know how it feels to live and breathe, the fire and the loving rush
of a woman's touch

just from the heat - the heat of us, now I know how it feels to live and breathe,
the fire and the lovin rush of a woman's.....
of a woman's touch
