Breakin' In

The Filthy Violets

Watching you smile
Yeah it sure is sweet
Chin so high
Never dragging your feet
It sure is sweet
So sweet to see
But it's a problem for me
Cause I want you to break
So that you can see
I'd give it all
Yeah I can be sweet
You will know
Baby you don't know
I'll let you know
Yeah I'll let you know
Now you're hurt
Tears roll down your face
And you aren't so sweet
But there's a halo hanging over me
You lend me your ear
You listen and draw near
You say you never knew
I've always been here
I think I got through
Yeah I think I got through
I let you know
Now it's me and you
