

Impossible

Nat "King" Cole

If they had ever told me how sweet a kiss could be
I would have said, "Impossible, impossible for me"
And if they said I'd find you beyond the rainbow's end
I would have said, "Impossible, impossible, my friend"
To dream about what might have been
Is strange enough for me
But now it seems I'm living in a dream
Too beautiful to be
If they had said a moonbeam could calm a stormy sea
I would have said, "Impossible" but now at last I see
That nothing is impossible if you are here with me
I would have said "Impossible" but now at last I see
That nothing is impossible if you are here with me
