

Artifice

Siva Addiction

Let's take a walk
Ease your mind
May your soul speak
The things you'd rather hideTake a look
See what we'll find
Open up to this world
You've left behindTake it off
The mask that hides
Who you are
Your artifice disguiseThis isn't you
Stop the lies
You've lost yourself
Before the real you diesHow do you live
In you parallel place
Never feeling
A real world embraceYoure a conceiver
Of an artificial life
Ruling all through
False reality
You're a believer
In your self-inflicted strife
Prisoner to your world's realitySynthetic selection
Nothing natural anymore
Drawn to imperfection
Your mask you adore
Feeding this addiction
Hypnotically entwined
Obviously smitten
To your ties that bind
