

Machine Man

Linda Perry

Have you been told
About the machine man?
His leather gloves
Hide his machine hands
In every dream
In sleep I ever had
I am awoke
By the machine man
Have you been told
About the machine man?
He watches me
With eyes as cold as sand
But when I sleep
I feel him stroke my hand
I am awoke
By the machine man
