

War Cry

Montgomery

Yeah yeah, I give up too fast
I haven't seen many of these things last
I'm falling asleep with my hands full again
Everyone has different plans
Feeling like this isn't fair
I shouldn't care, but it seems nothing compares
I looked down your deepest stare, still nothing was there
But I could feel the cold air, stale on my bare shoulders with my hair down
But you didn't care
No, you didn't care I have this song in my head of all the things that I could've said
I don't want anymore to regret, so now I'm trying to forget it But I can't let myself down
If I decide I'm never going to give you up
Then I'll shoot all my guards down and this will be the war cry I'll be singing out
Feeling like this isn't fair
I shouldn't care but it seems nothing compares
I looked down your deepest stare, still nothing was there I have this song in my head of all the things that I
could've said
I don't want anymore to regret, so now I'm trying to forget it
I have this song in, I have this song in
I have this song in my head
I have this song in, I have this song in
I have this song in my head Feeling like this isn't fair,
I shouldn't care
I looked down your deepest stare, still nothing was there I have this song in my head of all the things that I
could've said
I don't want anymore to regret, so now I'm trying to forget it
I have this song in my head of all the things that I could've said
I don't want anymore to regret, so now I'm trying to forget it
