

Sing the Changes

Paul McCartney

Like the sun playing in the morning
Feel the quiet, feel the thunder
Every ladder leads to heaven
Sing the changes, draw the pictureSing the changes as you're sleeping
Feel the quiet, feel the thunder
Sing the changes calling over
Feel the quiet in the thunderLike the sun playing in the morning
Feel the quiet, feel the thunder
Every ladder leads to heaven
Colored pencils draw the pictureSing your praises as you're sleeping
Feel the sense of childlike wonderSing the praises in city
New York City, here we come now
Feel the thunder, feel the quiet
Feel the feel of taking overFeel the sense of childlike wonder
As you're sleeping feel the thunder
Sing the changes everybody
Feel the sense of childlike wonder
