Little By Little

Gene Watson

Little by little, round by round
Weve been caught in the middle
Two hearts breakin down
Weve been fightin each other
With our backs to the wall
And little by little, were losin it allWe saw it comin, the end of the line
Weve been hurting each other, time after time
Over and over, we ignored what we saw
And little by little were losin it allYour fault or my fault, nobody cares
It no longer matters, there's just nothing there
But a few tiny pieces waiting to fall
And little by little we're losin' it allWe saw it comin, the end of the line
Weve been hurting each other, time after time
Over and over, we ignored what we saw
And little by little were losin it all
