Say Goodbye

Maren Ord

I'm sorry boy your time's up now
I thought I put my foot down
It's just too late to think that you
Could make a difference baby

Take your lies say goodbye
'Cause I don't want to see you

So you want to talk about the things you are
You want to talk about what you want you want
Well have you ever thought about the things I need
Have you ever thought of me yeah of me

How can I trust someone who says
One thing then does another
But then you say you want to change
Well babe why should I bother

Take your lies say goodbye
'Cause I don't want to see you

So you want to talk about the things you are
You want to talk about what you want you want
Well have you ever thought about the things I need
Have you ever thought of me yeah of me

Take your lies say goodbye
Take your lies say goodbye
Take your lies take your lies
Take your lies say goodbye

So you want to talk about the things you are
You want to talk about what you want you want
Wwll have you ever thought about the things I need
Have you ever thought of me yeah of me
