I'm Headed Your Way, Jose

Chris Young

Theyre comin' across the border by the thousands everyday

Lookin for a better life in the good ol U.S.A.

Well, everybodys talkin about the aliens invadin

While Im savin every dime for a Mexican vacation

Me, Im headed your way, hasta luego JoseYou say 'Hola', Ill say 'Hi'

When I pass you at the border slap me a high five

You better pack a poncho cause it sure gets cold up here

Me, Im headed south for hot women and cheap beerHeres the keys to my Chevrolet

You can have the house and the bills I pay

Welcome to the good of U.S.A.

Im headed your way, JoseCuervo that is

Lil sunshine, some margaritas

Cabo San Lucas, maybe go see Chichinitza

I love that wordUp here we work our asses off just tryin to get ahead

But you cant spend a dollar if you've worked yourself to death

From what I hear you way of life is an afternoon siesta

Then back to work for a little while for an all night long fiestaMe, Im headed your way

Well, sounds to me like a pretty fair tradeYou say 'Hola', Ill say 'Hi'

When I pass you at the border slap me a high five

You better pack a poncho cause it sure gets cold up here

Me, Im headed south for hot women and cheap beerHeres the keys to my Chevrolet

You can have the house and the bills I pay

Welcome to the good of U.S.A.

Im headed your way, JoseWhite sandy beaches

Pesos and jalapenos

Palm trees, ocean breeze

Ah man, Dos EquisWell, you say 'Hola', Ill say 'Hi'

When I pass you at the border slap me a high five

You better pack a poncho cause youll freeze your ass off here

Me, Im headed south for hot women and cheap beerHeres the keys to my Chevrolet

You can have the house and the bills I pay

Me, Im kickin back in the Mexican shade

Im headed your way, JoseYeah, Im hittin the road, man

Give me a little burro to ride on

You can have my car, that gas is killin me
