

Your Turn

Halloween

Now there is this day, a lot of things are changing
Can't just kick it away, got to get things right
Sometimes it happens fast and nothin' seems to last
The thing that I once started isn't mine anymore
I guess now it's my turn You've got a face like a child, got a mind like a woman
Your smile is warm and tender
I hear the people say that I should stay away
From you and all the problems you might bring They'll never know you, nobody ever knows what to do
They'll never see you cry, they'll never know why Now it's your turn to break free
When you want it all, you've got to see
Now it's your turn to break free
When you want the life, you've got to see what it means See the little boy holding mama's hand
His eyes can see the things we've long forgot
The world is easy now and somehow, he's right
Until there is this day when Mickey Mouse must go away It's your turn to break free
When you want it all, you've got to see
Now it's your turn to break free
When you want the life, you've got to see what it means This world is crying to be free
This world is dying, can't you see?
We need a turn to do it right
We need a mild revolution
To get away from this selfishness
Stop playing blind, break free It's your turn to break free
When you want it all, you've got to see
Now it's your turn to break free
When you want the life, you've got to see what it means
