Faithless

Rush

I've got my own moral compass to steer by
A guiding star beats a spirit in the sky
And all the preaching voices
Empty vessels dream so loud
As they move among the crowdFools and thieves are well disguised
In the temple and market place
In the temple and market placeLike a stone in the river
Against the floods of spring
I will quietly resist
I will quietly resistLike the willows in the wind
Or the cliffs along the ocean
I will quietly resist
I will quietly resistI don't have faith in faith
I don't believe in belief
You can call me faithless
You can call me faithlessI still cling to hope
And I believe in love
And that's faith enough for me
And that's faith enough for meI got my own spirit level for balance
To tell if my choice is leaning up or down
And all the shouting voices
Try to throw me off my courseSome by sermon, some by force
Fools and thieves are dangerous
In the temple and market place
In the temple and market placeLike a forest bows to winter
Beneath the deep white silence
I will quietly resistI don't have faith in faith
I don't believe in belief
You can call me faithless
You can call me faithlessI still cling to hope
And I believe in love
And that's faith enough for me
And that's faith enough for meLike a flower in the desert
That only blooms at night
I will quietly resistI don't have faith in faith
I don't believe in belief
You can call me faithless
You can call me faithlessBut I still cling to hope
And I believe in love

And that's faith enough for me
And that's faith enough for meAnd that's faith enough for me
