

Does She Talk?

Matthew Sweet

She's just your size
She's sexy, she's beautiful
Does she talk?
'Cos, she's just your size
She's sexy, she's beautiful
Does she talk?
'Cause man you can't teach
A slitherin' snake
How to walk? An' did she lick your palm
To tell you, your fortune tonight?
Did she lick your palm
To tell you, your fortune tonight?
You know sometimes it just
Isn't worth puttin' up a fight
Is it? Gonna need you a key
To open a door to her heart
Gonna need you a key
To open a door to her heart
Or are you afraid her body is Missin' that part? Oh I can you up the, you can me up the Alright
I can you up the, you can me up the
Alright
Because they took channel twenty three
Off the air last night
Down home You're gonna like it
You're gonna like it
