

Light and Darkness

Lyria

There's a battle in my life
Between darkness and light
Will evil devour me?
Maybe in the darkness my soul wants to be
Evilness's in the air
The world is so unfair
Oh lord I'm afraid there's no escape
Who will win this battle?
Who will win the prize?
Who will master my mind?
The inner voices in my head
Call me to the both sides
Who will control me?
Might in the light my heart wants to be
