

You Must Fall

Mayhem

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

The claws of death await you
Soul less on your deathbed The witches dance in circles As your manhood fades away
A shapeshifter appears before you
When the world of glass shatters Life does not forgive weakness
Exposing your loathsome self This is all but falseness You have nothing, you are nothing I shall reveal your truth I Am the Ghoul you fear I Am the psychic truth
I Was There when Satan went
