

Guardian Angel (feat. Jacob Hemphill)

Allen Stone

Somebody is watching all that I've done
That's what you get when you lost someone
Guardian angel's watching over me
Guardian angel's watching over me
Another day, another downfall
With smoke-braying eyes
Like Black Cat wrappers on fifth July
I walking on needles, still sleeping on pins
Been drowning my conscience in tonic and gin
Cannot lie, there's really no point
Oh, there's way too many psychoactive inside of this joint
Guardian angel, don't come close
Oh, please just swear you'll be right there when I need you the most
Somebody is watching all that I've done
That's what you get when you lost someone
Guardian angel's watching over me
Guardian angel's watching over me
I woke up in the morning, on the thirteenth floor
With no recollection about the night before
I left my phone on the subway, my wallet at the bar
My soul at the jukebox, right next to my heart
Guardian angel is looking on down
Every step I take, every mistake, I wonder what she thinks now
I cannot lie, it feels alright
I'm loving it, I got somebody watching from the other side
Somebody is watching all that I've done
That's what you get when you lost someone
Guardian angel's watching over me
Guardian angel's watching over me
Somebody is watching all that I've done
That's what you get when you lost someone
Guardian angel's watching over me
Guardian angel's watching over me
