I Didn't Know My Own Strength

Lorrie Morgan

Lost touch with my soul
I had nowhere to turn, I had nowhere to go
Lost sight of my dream
Thought it would be the end of meI thought I'd never make it through I had no hope to hold on to
I, I thought I would breakI didn't know my own strength
And I crashed down and I tumbled but I did not crumble
I got through all the pain
I didn't know my own strengthSurvived my darkest hour, my faith kept me alive
I picked myself back up, hold my head up high
I was not built to break
I didn't know my own strength
Found hope in my heart
I found the light to life my way out of the dark
Found all that I need here inside of meI thought I'd never find my way
I thought I'd never lift that weight
I thought I would breakI didn't know my own strength
And I crashed down and I tumbled but I did not crumble
I got through all the pain
I didn't know my own strengthSurvived my darkest hour, my faith kept me alive
I picked myself back up, hold my head up high
I was not built to break
I didn't know my own strengthThere were so many times I wondered How I'd get through the night
I thought I took all that I could take
I didn't know my own strength
And I crashed down and I tumbled but I did not crumble
I got through all the pain
I didn't know my own strengthMy faith kept me alive
I picked myself back up, I hold my head up high
I was not built to break
I didn't know my own strengthI was not built to break, no, no
I got to know my own strength
