Fantasy Man

Alice Cooper

I don't drink tea
Or white chablis
I sit around and watch TV
Don't send flowers
Or take showers
But I'll be there to pull your weeds
Oh, yeah
I dont read books
I dont french cook
Or stroll around in galleries
I hate opera
I hate Operah
Don't fill my head with poetryYou just want to squeeze my masculinity
Why can't you leave it alone?
Hey, hey I ain't gonna' change
Hey, hey don't you love me this way
Hey, hey I am what I am
So please understand
I'm not your fantasy manI don't do dishes
And I'm suspricious
Of any grown up man does
I'm homophobie
Don't do aerobics
Just lay around and catch a buzzYou just want to squeeze my masculinity
Why can't you leave it alone?Hey, hey I ain't gonna' change
Hey, hey don't you love me this way
Hey, hey I am what I am
So please understand
I'm not your fantasy man
Say hey, hey, hey, heyYou just want to squeeze my masculinity
Why can't you leave it alone?Hey, hey I ain't gonna' change
Hey, hey don't you love me this way
Hey, hey I am what I am
So please understand
I'm not your fantasy man
