

Doin' It Again

The Roots

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I keep it doin' it again
Oh, I'm doin' it again
Yes, I'm doin' it again
I said it would endRemix, rising up out of the flames like a phoenix
Straining to carry the weight of my brain like a genius
Knowing I'm sowing seeds, let's see whose thumb is the greenest
If I said "I mean it", I did it because I need it
Eat, sleep it or bleed it, write it down and then read it
Asphalt to the cement, your trash talk, deleted
I blast off then lay 'em out like a Tempurpedic
It's Black Thought, for certain I'mma win eventually
This unsung, underrated, under-appreciated
The one them underachievers had underestimated
Finally graduated from one of the most hated
To something that's so sacred, nobody goin' take it
Face it, I keep doin' it well
Doin' it sans assistance, just do it yourself
Doin' it below the radar, we doin' it stealth
Doin' it again for Illadelph, yo, who else?
We goin' do it again! I keep it doin' it again
Oh, I'm doin' it again
Yes, I'm doin' it again
I said it would endAyo I'm on my job, see my eyes focused where the prize be
Even though they tried to rob me and sabotage the spot
Just like 'Pac when they got him in the lobby
Try to tax and fine me like Ronald Isley
It's a changed man, ain't no again's or probably's
Niggas used to know me, they don't even recognise me
Yep, the P-5-D is who the repertoire be
Doin' it again just like Poitier and Cosby
I'm like Martin Luther King, you like Rodney
The difference is I give it everything inside me

Dear diary, the fans still swear by me
Even though I'm Late Night now like "Here's Johnny"
Swimming with them Great Whites now, that's where to find me
Funny how it break right down, but never mind me
Forever grimey, I guess it's just Philly shining
Rock roller, bi-polar like Phyllis Hyman
