

Chrysanthemum

Everclear

Yes, I hate the way I feel and it makes no sense
Five months gone and all I got
Pretty pink flowers on my chain link fence
And I dont like what it means
'Cause I know theres more to come I cant go home without Chrysanthemum I walk around lost and I dont know why
I dont see the faces or the places
That I should recognize
Its like that dream where it feels like home
But it dont look right
Yes, I will look everywhere tonight And I will not stop until I make things right
And I cant go home until I see the sun
I cant go home without
Chrysanthemum
No, I cant go home without
Chrysanthemum
