

Lies of My Fears

MaRynn Taylor

The lies of my fears say I'm too young
Won't ever be nothing but a small-town girl
The voice in my head keeps pushing me 'round
Who you think you are dreaming 'bout changing the world?
Guess we're gonna find out
Guess time will tell
If it's a big mistake, gonna make it myself
Might learn the hard way
Cry a few tears
But I ain't gonna listen to the lies of my fears
The lies of my fears say, "Hey, look in that mirror
Then tell me you're happy with what you see"
Too skinny, too fat
Too this or too that
Who could ever love somebody like me?
Guess we're gonna find out
Guess time will tell
If it's a big mistake, gonna make it myself
Might learn the hard way
Cry a few tears
But I ain't gonna listen to the lies of my fears
Woah
Here's to the dream dreamers dream
Out of the box and in between
Too big, too high
Yeah, that's right
Right where it's at
Here's to the songs singers sing
Soundtrack of those crazy dreams
Drowning out me and everyone
Telling me I can't
Well, we're gonna find out
Guess time will tell
If it's a big mistake or a wishing well
Yeah, we're gonna find out
Guess time will tell
If it's a big mistake, gonna make it myself
Might learn the hard way
Cry a few tears

But I ain't gonna listen to Ain't gonna listen to
Ain't gonna listen to the lies of my fears
The lies of my fears say I'm too young
So, I ain't gonna listen to the lies of my fears
