World By Storm

Aiden

You people have been chosen
To reveal our existence to the world
You will witness what happens here today
And you will tell of it later
Look what dreams have done
Look what life is like without them
Each day we will spill their blood
'Til it rains down from the skies
Sometimes when fear strikes home
We hit back hard now with a vengeance all our own
The slate has been wiped clean
My eyes have been opened up
I feel the pride pushed away
And bad feelings stop
I know now, I feel it coming
Here we go
Standing side by side
Right through the door
World by storm
They'll syndicate and
Complicate this war
World by storm
We're standing side by side
Right through the
Disintegrate, follow me
Now I see
Now I see the truth
Disintegrate, follow me
Now I see
Now I see it's you
The bridges burned
Have been swept away
The past has been erased
Our minds feel awake I know
The slate has been wiped clean
I won't pretend to
Let the world pass by
And there's kids in the world
Whose dreams will die

I know now, I feel it coming
Here we go
Standing side by side
Right through the door
World by storm
They'll syndicate and
Complicate this war
One, two, one, two, one, two, three, four
The world by storm
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
The world by storm
It's in our heads
It's in our hearts
