

Trust Nolan

The Casket Lottery

You may have saved your name, but i know exactly how you hurt. dont lie. come clean. if you cant trust your friends, who will hold up your head. i'll smash them for you (your aches). i'll bend them over my knee and sent the better halves back by mouths of bears and eagles beak and when i'm calm i'll claim resonsibility. my friend, youre worth defending. to me. so dont lie, come clean.
