Red Balloon For Me

The Electric Soft Parade

Today was the day
They went away
The voices in my head disappeared

And I (I see you've taken all the blame)
I could cry (it's really not that hard)
I could die (it's really not that hard)
But I'd rather never see you...
And I (I see you've taken all the blame)
I could cry (it's really not that hard)
I could die (it's really not that hard)
But I'd rather never see you again

The time I awake
Spelled out all of my mistakes (mistakes)
The voices in my ears, they are fake

And I (I see you've taken all the blame)
I could cry (it's really not that hard)
I could die (it's really not that hard)
But I'd rather never see you...
And I (I see you've taken all the blame)
I could cry (it's really not that hard)
I could die (it's really not that hard)
But I'd rather never see you again

And I (I see you've taken all the blame)
I could cry (it's really not that hard)
I could die (it's really not that hard)
But I'd rather never see you...
And I (I see you've taken all the blame)
I could cry (it's really not that hard)
I could die (it's really not that hard)
But I'd rather never see you again
