

Ashamed

Imx

Our anniversary is what it's suppose to be
Goin' on 2 years and now it ends in tragedy
Just walked out the door and you went away
Didn't say nothing and didn't give me time to explain
I called your house they say you're not home
But I know you're sittin' by the phone screening my calls
Girl, I understand, you don't want to see my face
But at least give me a chance to plead my case
What, what have I done to you? I'm so afraid
Oh, what did I do? When I woke up this mornin' it wasn't you
In my bed instead it was some woman's face I didn't even recognize
And you still went away, please, forgive me for I am ashamed
Really missin' you, what am I suppose to do?
Never meant to hurt you in anyway please let me stay
She meant nothing to me, it was like a dream
It's not fair 'cause when I woke up you were not there
But I know it's reality
And the truth really hurts you see
But find it in your heart to forgive me
But what I've done, I'm wrong and I feel so ashamed
What, what have I done to you? I'm so afraid
Oh, what did I do? When I woke up this mornin' it wasn't you
In my bed instead it was some woman's face I didn't even recognize
And you still went away, please, forgive me for I am ashamed
I feel ashamed, I feel ashamed, I feel ashamed
I feel ashamed, I feel ashamed, I feel ashamed
I'm ashamed, please, forgive me
I've learned my lesson, babe, babe
What, what have I done to you? I'm so afraid
Oh, what did I do? When I woke up this mornin' it wasn't you
In my bed instead it was some woman's face I didn't even recognize
And you went away, please, forgive me for I am ashamed
