Maybe Tomorrow

Kids In Glass Houses

Get up early
You're still late
And still coming down from yesterday
I've seen enough to see this far
And I wanna fail you all
Soldiered on into the day
Wipe your nose, the night still prays
Upon your skin and crawls
I'll be the prick you call
I've got answers no one else will give
I live the lives no one will live
I've seen it all
I've heard it all
Maybe tomorrow brings a song
And we'll all sing along
Maybe tomorrow
Brings a song and we'll all sing along
We'll all sing along
Find a cause to celebrate

Get your shoes no time to waste
(The world won't wait) Don't hesitate
I'll meet you by the golden gate
I've got answers no one else will give
I live the lives no one will live
I've seen it all
I've heard it all
Maybe tomorrow brings a song
And we'll all sing along
Maybe tomorrow
Brings a song and we'll all sing along
We'll all sing along, we'll all sing along, we'll all sing along
Maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow we'll all sing along
Maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow we'll all sing along
Maybe tomorrow brings a song and we'll all sing along
Maybe tomorrow brings a song and we'll all sing along
Maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow we'll all sing along
Maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow we'll all sing along
We'll all sing along
