All The Money In The World

Black Lab

Switch the children
Watch the women scream.
Listen to the big machine.
Let's have a party,
Let's get some fireworks
Lets get some firewoksLet's see how long we forget how the game goes
Marigolds gone to soldiers, gone to seed.
Listen to the big machine.All the money
All the money in the world
All the money
All the money can't burn your big machine.We wave our hands in bright white shades
We wave our flags, our billy clubs & spades
Help us now, this is our hour of need
Listen to the big machine.
