

The Perfect Boy

The Cure

"You and me are the world", she said
Nothing else is real
The two of us is all there is
The rest is just a dream Always meant to be
I can feel it like a destiny thing
Written in the stars, inescapable fate
Yeah, it's out of my hands falling into your arms And I don't want to get innocent
But I would love you to take my time
"We're on the edge of a beautiful thing", she said
Come on, let's stay here for a while Oh girl, he is the one for sure
Oh girl, he is the perfect boy "Yeah, me and you are a world", he said
But not the only one I need
The two of us is never all there is
That doesn't happen for real If it was meant to be us, it was meant to be now
Don't see the sense in wasting time
If you're so sure about this Laurel kismet Hardy thing
You know tonight you're mine And I don't want to get obvious
But I have to be gone by three
"We're on the edge of a beautiful thing", he said
So come on jump with me Oh girl, he's not the one for sure
Oh girl, he's not so wonderful Oh girl, he's not the one for sure
Oh girl, he's not the perfect boy at all "You and me are the world", she says
Nothing else is real
The two of us is all there is
The rest is just a dream And her heart maybe broken a hundred times
But the hurt will never destroy her hope
The happy ever after girl
One day finds the perfect boy
