The Perfect Boy

The Cure

"You and me are the world", she said

Nothing else is real

The two of us is all there is

The rest is just a dreamAlways meant to be

I can feel it like a destiny thing

Written in the stars, inescapable fate

Yeah, it's out of my hands falling into your armsAnd I don't want to get innocent

But I would love you to take my time

"We're on the edge of a beautiful thing", she said

Come on, let's stay here for a whileOh girl, he is the one for sure

Come on, let's stay here for a whileOh girl, he is the one for sure Oh girl, he is the perfect boy"Yeah, me and you are a world", he said But not the only one I need

The two of us is never all there is

That doesn't happen for realIf it was meant to be us, it was meant to be now

Don't see the sense in wasting time

If you're so sure about this Laurel kismet Hardy thing You know tonight you're mineAnd I don't want to get obvious But I have to be gone by three

"We're on the edge of a beautiful thing", he said
So come on jump with meOh girl, he's not the one for sure
Oh girl, he's not so wonderfulOh girl, he's not the one for sure
Oh girl, he's not the perfect boy at all"You and me are the world", she says
Nothing else is real

The two of us is all there is

The rest is just a dreamAnd her heart maybe broken a hundred times

But the hurt will never destroy her hope

The happy ever after girl

One day finds the perfect boy
